

About Savannah State University

Since its founding in 1890, Savannah State University has upheld a firm tradition of academic excellence and engagement in and service to its community, the nation and the world. The diverse and growing student body selects majors from 26 undergraduate and five graduate degree programs and enjoys more than 75 exciting and engaging clubs and organizations including all nine National Pan-Hellenic Council fraternities and sororities, competitive intramural sports, musical and theatrical ensembles, and study-abroad programs. Located between the lively historic district and the serene beaches of Tybee Island, the picturesque 201-acre residential campus truly bursts at the seams with the warmth and vibrancy of the ideal collegiate experience.

Mission Statement

Savannah State University, the oldest public historically black university in the state of Georgia, develops productive members of a global society through high-quality instruction, scholarship, research, service and community involvement. The university fosters engaged learning and personal growth in a student-centered environment that celebrates the African American legacy while nurturing a diverse student body. Savannah State University offers graduate and undergraduate studies including nationally accredited programs in the liberal arts, the sciences and the professions.

SAVANNAH STATE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT'S SCHOLARSHIP GALA

The annual President's Scholarship Gala will be held Saturday, April 26, 2014, at the Student Union on the historic campus of Savannah State University. This fundraising event supports student scholarships and recognizes a select group of distinguished individuals -- alumni and friends of the university -- with Awards of Excellence for their contributions to Savannah State University or the greater community in the areas of service, philanthropy, leadership and scholarship. This year's theme, Bridging Possibilities, acknowledges the university as a marker of connectivity between people, places and things -- helping people to get anywhere from here. SSU is the first step in a student's journey toward his or her future.

For nearly 125 years, Savannah State University has been the foundation for educational achievement and social engagement of countless young men and women preparing for leadership roles in society. As many in our community and nation face challenging economic times, our students face the uncertainty of adequate financial aid. Scholarship dollars are critical to SSU's commitment of providing an affordable, high quality education. All proceeds from the gala will support student scholarships.

Your support as a gala sponsor will leverage these critical scholarship dollars. Please consider the opportunities described herein. We hope you will participate at the very highest level of commitment for your organization. When you join us on April 26 for an exquisite evening of dining, dancing and fellowship, you will know that your presence extends far beyond the parameters of a spectacular event. You will know your support has the ability to transform lives and influence the direction that an affordable, high quality education will take in preparing our future leaders.
