GIFT-IN-KIND ACCEPTANCE FORM

Before Accepting a Gift-In-Kind...

- Review the Gift-In-Kind Acceptance Policy
- Confirm any specific instructions or restrictions with the donor
- Collect written documentation that includes the acceptance of the form
- Collect written documentation that confirms the value or estimated value of the gift
- Consult with the Office of University Advancement to help facilitate the process

Completing the Gift-In-Kind Acceptance Form

- Please be certain that all eight sections of the form are complete and that the appropriate names and signatures are in place.
- Attach to this form all documentation supporting the acceptance of this gift. If insufficient or no value substantiation is attached, a temporary token value of $1 will be assigned to the gift until the needed documentation is secured.
- In the “Gift Information” section (#3), please include sufficient information so as to identify the exact nature of the gift. For equipment, this might include a manufacturer, model number, color, etc. For in-kind gifts of services, a detailed description of the work being performed is required.
- In the “Gift Restrictions” section (#6), the Social Security number (SS#) or the taxpayer identification number (TIN) must be included for individuals or organizations who have contributed gifts-in-kind valued more than $5,000 that may or will be sold.
- In the “Ultimate Recipient of Gift” section (#7), be certain that the appropriate box has been checked.
 - The University (and subsequently the State of Georgia) is the recipient of in-kind gifts that will be used to enhance the education of the students on the campus and for gifts-in-kind that will directly benefit the University.
 - The Foundation is the recipient for in-kind gifts that will be used for the enterprise ventures on the campus, for all gifts of animals, for gifts-in-kind contributed with the understanding that the gift would be sold (including real estate), and for in-kind gifts that will become the permanent property of the Savannah State University Foundation.

In the supporting documentation, please include sufficient information about the gift to make it clear why the University or Foundation was selected as the recipient. If you have questions regarding the appropriate recipient for a particular gift, please contact the Office of Development at 912-358-3059.

- Signatures should first be obtained from the chair of the department accepting the gift and the dean of the appropriate academic college or AD for athletics. The completed form and supporting documentation should then be sent to the Office of University Advancement, Jasmine Bldg.
- An official tax receipt will be provided to the donor by the Savannah State University Foundation. This acknowledgment letter confirms the gift has been accepted but does not include the value.
- No item can be accepted until the Gift-in-Kind form is approved and accepted by the Foundation.
